DEENA REMIEL
BEST-SELLING KINDLE AUTHOR

URBAN FANTASY/
PARANORMAL ROMANCE

It was the mystique of Arizona's history and landscape that called to Deena and catapulted her career as an author. She enjoys writing for creepy, evil villains and strong, alpha heroes and heroines in the wee, small hours of the morning or in the deep, dark of night.

Deena teaches language arts to middle school students when she's not writing sinister plots, romantic interludes, or battles between Good and Evil. She currently lives in Gilbert with her husband and two children, but New Jersey will always tug at her heartstrings. She loves connecting with her fans, on her fan pages and website, so find her at these social media outlets:
